

Sarah Connor, Sweet Is The Song

(written by Rob Tyger & Kay Denar)

verse 1

I was alone out in the night
I saw a house, I walked inside
I didn't know what I would find there

A little child among the sheep
Lying so fragile, looked at me
I heard an angel's voice beside me,
That told me

chorus

Sweet is the song that I'm singing
Precious is all that you get
Peace for this world's what he's bringing Jesus, your saviour, is back

verse 2

The morning came, I realized
It was just a dream, but how could I Ever forget that little baby-boy

It has more strength than hundred men
It has more power in the end
Than our greatest nation's army
So come sit down and listen to me

chorus 2

Sweet is the song that I'm singing
Precious is all that I get
Peace for this world's what he's bringing
Jesus, my saviour, is back

See him in every smile of a child
Hear him when nightingales sing in the night
Feel him in every heartbeat
Jesus, my saviour, is back
