

Sarah Connor, Turn Off The Lights

Turn off the lights
And baby close the door
This is the night
We've both been waiting for

To fall in love it only needs
The blink of an eye and then you feel
Some kind of longing and wanting and wishing and missing
Until the dream comes real

Turn off the lights
And come here close to me
Let's make the night
How it's supposed to be

It's the beginning of
This crazy thing called love
So get to the lights
And turn them off
