

Sarah Geronimo, Just Believe

Here you go again ready to give up, Feeling so pressure again. enough is enough, believe it or not you're not alone Everyone's hope is running thin but it's never as bad as it seems

Chorus:

Just believe, things can only get better, just believe, your spirit can soar higher,
just believe, tomorrow can shine brighter, all you got to do is just believe Every now and then, nothing turns out right, you will feel so unlove as you cry through the night Believe it or not, you're not alone
Everyone's hope is running thin but it's ever as bad as it seems.

(repeat chorus)

Sad moments are made to make us appreciate the happy times, we always seem to take for granted Always taken for granted oh oh oh oh

Just believe, things can only get better,
just believe, your spirit can soar higher,
just believe, tomorrow can shine brighter,
No need to feel down, you can turn things around ,
all you got to do is just believe no need to feel down you can turn things around, you can do it if you just believe just believe
