

Sarah Masen, Fly Baby

This bond's been misunderstood
Yeah, the dreams we build are paper kingdoms Friend if only we could Reach beyond ourselves for some understanding

Let's go for a drive baby, fly maybe
Tear this canvas blue sky Let's rip through the seams of our insecurities
On to deeper things
Come on babe try

Moments of disbelief
Fill the atmosphere with thoughts that Hold us under
Looking for some retreat
From the fear that keeps us in silence

I will not embrace indifference
Nor will stop
When we're almost there
And I will run with all my might Run until we fall
Run until we crash
Run until we fly
Run until we die
