Sarah Masen, The Valley

When it seems that darkness covers you In the valley I'II pray the kingdom comes soon When daylight is a distant memory In the valley I'II pray that Jesus comes soon

In the valley In the valley

Try not to be afraid for long if you can help it In the valley I'Il send you a picture of my little girl And like a flower you can burst forth smiling Even in the valley Still, I'Il pray that Jesus comes soon

In the valley In the valley In the valley In the valley Ah Ah Ah Ah

When it seems that you have nothing left to offer but your sorrow Remember where there is grace there is no shame And as it happens light has nowhere else to happen but The valley And maybe something's trying to break through
