

Sarah McLachlan, Possession (Rabbit In The Mo

Just close your eyes (spoken)

And I would, and I would, and I would be the one
And I would, and I would, and I would be the one
To hold you down

And I would, and I would, and I would be the one
And I would, and I would, and I would be the one
To hold you down

Kiss you so hard

I'll take your breath away

And after I'd wipe away the tears

Just close your eyes

Just close your eyes

Just close your eyes

Just close your eyes

Just close your eyes

I'll hold you down

Kiss you so hard

I'll take your breath away

Just close, just close your eyes

Just close, just close your eyes

Just close your eyes

Just close your eyes

Just close your eyes

Just close your eyes (spoken)
