

Sarah Sadler, Down To You

You, for every moment
All the time
Everyday I live
For every road that I may travel
For every choice this heart must make
It all comes down to You

You are only faithful
All the time
Everyday I live
For every dream that waits beyond me
For every cross I'm called to bear
It all comes down to You

Your love will lead me on
You'll lead me true
This heart, this life
This will of mine
I offer all to You

For every moment
All the time
Everyday I live
For every tear that falls in silence
For all the love I long to find
It all comes down to You
