

Sarah Sadler, Where I'll Be Waiting

Find me in the garden
Between Your dreams and reality
That's where I'll be waiting
For you to come find me
All your life you've wanted something
Like an angel without wings

Chorus:
You can feel me
I can see you
But to touch me, you must try
You won't get here
Without falling
You must find your wings and fly
Fly

I'm here where you left me
You put me down for worlds and crowns
Is this what you wanted?
To go your way but lose yourself?
All your life you've reached for something
Like a bird held in a cage

Chorus

Trusting comes in time
Trust your heart and then trust mine
