

Satanic Surfers, Together

The tour has just begun, yeah, I've only been gone for a week now but it feels like forever and I miss
Got a few more weeks to go
(Few more weeks to go)
Just a few more weeks then I'm coming home, maybe we could do something together, maybe we (Then I'm coming home)
I have a photograph of you in my pocket, an empty wallet
Spent all of my money on records
But nothing can help me from missing you, no, nothing can keep me from missing you
Nothing can keep me from missing you, maybe we could do something together, maybe we could
Maybe
Maybe we could do something together, maybe we could do something together, maybe we could
