

Satanic Surfers, Wishing You Were Here

Saw a recent picture of you, it brought tears to my eyes when I realized that it's been so long, too long
And I felt the distance cut like a blade through my wrist, you looked different somehow
Older perhaps
Different somehow
I used to think we'd never be too far away from each other but it feels like we're growing apart
And the absence of you is leaving
A hollow space in my heart
[x2] Guess you're happy where you are but I can't help wishing you were here
(Guess you're happy) [x2]
