

Satyricon, The Night Of The Triumphator

Come come infernal war awake beasts of hell
Free yourself from the chains that have been holding you for 666 years
We await sodomy and destruction

It is the night of the triumphator (Starts the burning of heaven)

On this night in the pentagrams power we shoot the angels Down from the sky
(And we) sodomize the dirty whores of babylon... On christian ground

On this night we torture the betrayers
Night night holy night of the triumphator
(Rape the nuns, Hang the priests, Cut the throat of the crying christians)
