

Saves The Day, Getaway

i don't need nobody not at all
'cause i'm gonna end it all in the light at the break of dawn and i don't why or what went wrong i'm tired of trying to pretend to believe that i can go on the pain won't let me get away and now i know we'll never be the same i don't wanna live, not another day i don't wanna live this way i said the pain won't let me get away

i'm gonna get my staples and a bottle of booze i've got these skewers in my mouth now there's nothing else i can do except to run out naked in the road reaching up into the air, got the taste of blood in my throat

i don't wanna live this way

(oogacha oogacha oogacha oogacha)

and now i know i'll never be the same
i don't wanna live, not another day i'll never let you live this way
