

Savoy, Foolish

Woke up
To a lonely type of day
I'm running out of reasons
Should say
Put your arms around me
What can I say
Leave me where you found me
Then walk away

I'm staying through to Friday
Then I'm gone
Unreachable by letters
Or by phone
But one day I'll be calling
Way down the road baby
Stop me then from falling
Don't let me go

One day you will know
I'll be damned if I ever
Will let you go
And it keeps me together to know

I let her slip away
That was foolish
I bow to the ovation
In my head
Put your arms around me
One for the road, baby
Leave me where you found me
Then walk away
