Savoy, Foolish

Woke up
To a lonely type of day
I&#039;m running out of reasons
Should say
Put your arms around me
What can I say
Leave me where you found me
Then walk away

I&#039;m staying through to Friday
Then I&#039;m gone
Unreachable by letters
Or by phone
But one day I&#039;ll be calling
Way down the road baby
Stop me then from falling
Don&#039;t let me go

One day you will know
I&#039;ll be damned if I ever
Will let you go
And it keeps me together to know

I let her slip away
That was foolish
I bow to the ovation
In my head
Put your arms around me
One for the road, baby
Leave me where you found me
Then walk away
