

Say Hi To Your Mom, Pop Music Of The Future

she sold her warlock
and bought her drum machine
fired her whole band
'cause they hated 909 beats
she's got a love space
takes the L train to bedford runs with some cool kids that are actors, but dress like nerds.

and plays pop music of the future.
and no one will ever get to her.
she's a shaker, but not a mover.
she plays pop music of the future.

back in the 80's,
she wanted to be in a hair band.
and then in the 90's,
she only wore corduroy pants.
and then there was emo,
but that was just a phase.
'cause it's all been down hill
since sunny day real estate's
first record

she plays pop music of the future.
and no one will ever get to her.
she's a shaker, but not a mover.
she plays pop music of the future.
