

Saybia, A Year Ago

A year ago - Saybia
There's no face that looks at me
With eyes that recognize
I'm a man in no-mansland
A tree in open sea
There's a form that looks at me
I can't recall it's form
I check the plug a million times
But nothing is wrong I guess
I am cripple
I am dumb
I am on the moon
I am naked
I am here
Someone see me soon
aaah
forms are crawling out of me
The roof is coming down
Doors are locked
Nobody is home
Nobody is home for me
I am cripple
I am dumb
I am all alone
I am naked
I am here
Someone see me soon
Because I am here
I am cripple
I am dumb
I am all alone
I am naked
I am here
Someone see me soon
Because I am here
Because I am here
Because I am here
Darkness falls and I recall that lonely day today
