

Saybia, I Surrender

A million suns are glowing in the night
Everything is quiet
Except for all the voices in my head
That say your name

Tonight I'm letting go
About to give in

I surrender myself
Into the arms of a beautiful stranger
I surrender myself to you, to you
I surrender myself
Into the arms of a beautiful stranger
I surrender myself to you, to you

There is only one bridge left for me
My heart is almost free
Beautiful by my side
But all I think about is you

And tonight I'm letting go
About to give in

I surrender myself
Into the arms of a beautiful stranger
I surrender myself to you, to you
I surrender myself
Into the arms of a beautiful stranger
I surrender myself to you

Who really loves me?
You really love me
My beautiful stranger
You really love me
Like I love you
