

Saybia, I Will Let You Know

you're leaving
and all I can do is wait here with patience until you return
I'm sorry that we've ever met cause I feel the pain that's just round the corner I see you in every mirror and I turn around just so see you were there I long to be near you
I'm longing to hear you but right now I'm letting you go
everywhere you go
I will let you know
my flame still burns for you
and everything you do
everywhere you go
I will let you know
I'm sitting alone with your picture your eyes burn like fire right into my heart
I'm longing to hear you
but everywhere you go
I will let you know
everywhere you go
I will let you know
everywhere you go
I will let you know
everywhere you go
I will let you know
will see me through
everywhere you go
I will let you know
from morning when the sun tells me you're the one till evening when the sky helps me testify
that everywhere you go
I will let you know
I will let you know
