

Scabs, Vampirella

Vampirella
Baby let me tell
Vampirella let me tell ya
I'm the fella that you're looking for

Vampirella
Baby let me tell
Vampirella let me tell ya
I'm the fella that you're looking for

Baby I've seen you out at night looking good outta sight all right
Goddamn that red bikini that you wears tight might bite if that's alright
Baby I know that your daddy's Dracula don't mean to mack you though
I really think you'll find me cooler than blackula and that's miracula
If you catch my vernacular I'll pull out my spatula on ya

So baby what will you do
You ain't got nothing to lose
Kick of those high heeled shoes
C'mon and come with me and let's lose these blues
