

Scarling., (Northbound On) Cahvenga

She's precious and perfect
While easily broken
Dear sister, You missed her
She's already spoken.
She whispers and Blisters
She Talks and conspires
She spits at the walls and f**ks all the liars.

Now I see you driving in her car
Now I See
Now I see you, Now I see
Now I see you driving in her car

He's handsome- Hopeful
So easily recognized
Dear Brother-
Discovered, she left no good byes

He's acting, Not knowing
He drinks and perspires
Shatters mirrors- reflecting his desires

Now I see you driving in her car
Now I see
Now I see you - Now I see, Now I see you
Driving in her car
Driving in her car
Driving in her car

Then you held my hand
As she drove away
As she drove away
As she drove away
