

Scars Of Life, Broken Bond

From the start you always had your doubts about me I never ment to get in the way of what made you happy and when your marriage failed you pointed your finger at me and wept you always saw me as a threat to you... I am

MINE - the memories that you gave to me
TIME - the years I watch you waste away KILL - I want to remove the shit I've seen This bond you break, Its killing me

I've never wanted you to give up on me I cant breathe, I cant see why you choose this life over me

She used to tell you lies to make you wanna hate me
With all the tears I've shead you turn your back upon me I can't remember when the phone had your voice on the other end you always saw me as a threat to you.. I am

I've never heard the words from your mouth..
