

Scars Of Life, Dead And Gone

I try so hard to give this all I have but something's in the way I want to know that this times for real not the lies you say If I can think back hard to when we once were
I cant seem to see
You said I made your life a living hell
but its beyond me..

If I remember the words you say Its my life, its my time but yet you still want a part of me I can only front for so long
Its your life, its not mine
Why cant you be dead and gone!

I remember the fights that we used to have about what I couldn't see this anger still prevails from my heart deep inside of me
If I close my eyes and think about our past
I cant seem to see
you said I made your life a living hell
But its beyond me..

Dead and gone!
You want a part of me!
