

Scaterd Few, Look Into My Side

She came to me softly
With whispers in her hair
Like a revelation
No one could care
There was danger everywhere
What's it gonna feel like
What's it gonna seem like to be a star

Dancing on silver lakes

She came to me softly
With whispers in her hair
Like a revelation
No one could care
There was danger everywhere
What's it gonna feel like
What's it gonna seem like to be a star

Can you see
When you look into my side
Take a look
