

Scaterd Few, Shark Attack

Did I mention
All the tension
When I walk in stride

The attention
And aggression
Raging up inside

Hypertension
Apprehension
Crash against the tide

Allegations
Of pretension
And there's nowhere to hide

Like a shark attack
On you and me
Buddy's got your back
Just wait and see

Is there prevention
In suspension
When I'm toeing the line

The extension
Of my dimensions
Tell in whom to confide

Comprehension
No condemnation
I'm just here for the ride

Then a notion
Begins the tension
And I'm screaming inside

Like a shark attack
On you and me
Buddy's got your back
Just wait and see

And there's nowhere to hide
