

Scaterd Few, Sinking In Sorrow

I wouldn't say nothing here
It's better not to stare
Just try and stay away

I couldn't see crystal clear
Like love me do or dare
Forbid I go astray

Seen better days
Seen better days
Seen better days

You bitter slithered back
Jump on it

You pushed me so violently that I would fall
You pushed me so violently that I would fall
I've seen another revelation of Yeshua's way
I've seen another revolution that's here to stay

Seen better days

Sinking in Sorrow

You bitter slithered back
Jump on it
