It's always someone you know when you're drunk and alone

I'm taking back my power there's so much I could say Boys will be boys but girls piss on your grave

If I could go back in time I'd put a gun in my bra I'd point it straight to your brain ask if you liked what you saw you'd spend the rest of your days laying awake like I do cause I don't hate anyone but I fucking hate you.
