

Schaeffer, Promise Me

Promise me you will not hold on to the past cause we dont know how long we will last.
And please dont treat this like it is a game, cause broken hearts are on the floor from where you came So come on Love, take a breath.
And take a risk on the chance
We could find something bigger than whats in both our eyes
And well fly farther than we ever could realize