

Schiller, Distance Schiller

I'm caught in the midst of your caution you breathe and I exhale if there's one thing I would clarify one little thing I could justify is my love for you my love for you... cause I can go the distance I can be your shore
I will be your medicine just when you need more if loving is your target then aim yourself at me caus' I can go the distance if you believe, if you believe
