

Schiller, I've Seen It All...

i've seen it all...

i remember the time
once in a life, oh baby
got you here in my head, here in my head oh maybe

i've seen it all...

waiting on a bed of nails time is running slow until it ends
i've seen it all

hunting for mystery running for your life in times like these

i remember the time
got you here in my head,

i've seen it all...

like i've never seen before catching up a smile instead of frown asking you to never let me down it will never be the same forever

i've seen it all...
