

Schiller, In The Dark

Simply magic your passion always wins there's no space
like your own space
I want to walk with you

Simply magic
do what you gotta do your touches convinced me to forget

I never ever should have told you that I get lost so easily I never ever should have told you

Shall we dance, passionate in the dark, don't let me wait
shall we dance, passionate,
in the dark

Darkness surrounds us, I'm in the mood today newborn nerves beginning to stir searching for something

Simply magic

that I get lost too easily
I never ever should have told you

shall we dance, passionate,
in the dark

In the dark

Shall we dance in the dark?
