

Schism, We Do It All Again

The sun goes down and we get up,
To put our faith in drink and drugs,
And when things get a little strange,
We get back up,

And then we do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And then we do it all again,

So am I bad or just no good,
I'd fuck your sister if I could,
I stand accused but feel no shame,
We get fucked up,

And then we do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And then we do it all again,
Do it all again

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

But don't ask me,
I wish I knew,
Why I do the things I do,
Makes no sense,
I can't explain,
I get fucked up,

And then we do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And again,
And again,
We do it all again,
And then we do it all again,
And then we do it all again,
And then we do it all again,again,again,
We do it all again.
