

Schizma, HC State Of Mind

What da fuck? Another year goes by Nothing is changing
Despite all the suffering
It's always the same
The powers that be content with themselves
All of our dreams
All of our hopes
Broken by pain
You better think twice
I'm in the hardcore state of mind
You better think twice
Cause it's the hardcore state of mind
Walking round this town
Nothing to do all day
Nothing is left, nobody cares
Someone's gonna pay
You better think twice
We're in the hardcore state of mind...
Oni nie moga juz tego dluzej robic...
Schizma
Hardcore state of fuckin' mind
