

School For The Dead, Candy Cane

Candy Cane was happy for a long time
Crouching down, hide-and-sees, 1968
Candy Cane was happy for a long time
The doctors came and they said, Things might change.
He's got a messed up spine
Raise your glass to

Candy Cane, I can't explain the way I feel
When you look at me
With your big sad eyes.

Candy Cane was happy for a long time
Got a home of his own, 1981
Candy Cane was out there on a good day
In the park with his shirt off and his radio on
He's got a messed up spine
Raise your glass to

Candy Cane, I can't explain the way I feel
When you look at me
With your big sad eyes.

Shopping trip
Torn plastic bag
The saddest thing you've ever seen
Broken jar of jam
Lend a hand to

Candy Cane, I can't explain the way I feel
When you look at me
With your big sad eyes.

Candy Cane, I can't explain the way I feel
When you look at me
With your big sad eyes.

Candy Cane was happy for a long time.
