Scorpions, Falling In Love

(Herman Rarebell)

I look in your eyes, I really think you're fooling me You're pretty and nice, it doesn't matter don't you see 'cause I falling in love, it happens to me every day I'm falling in love, love just seems to slip away

I'm falling in love Ooh, oooh I'm falling in love Ooh, oooh I'm falling in love Ooh, oooh

Don't tell me your lies, I don't believe a word you say You do realize, I move around from day to day And I'm falling in love, it happens to me every day I'm falling in love, love just seems to slip away

I'm falling in love Ooh, oooh I'm falling in love Ooh, oooh I'm falling in love Ooh, oooh I'm falling in love
