

Scott Hoying, Parallel

Follow me breathe by breathe
Line by line
Listen close your heart is beating just the same as mine
Look at us chest to chest
My oh my
Hold me close don't know the dance but we can improvise
Step by step
Right in time
Like my hands can read your mind

Lay on the floor beside me
Let's lock the door, remind me
Why
I would ever be anywhere else
Without you I'm half of myself
Side by side
That love

Outside the sky is falling
Look in my eyes and tell me
Why
I would ever be anywhere else
Like something that I've never felt
You and I
Parallel

You and I so aligned
Parallel
You and I intertwined equal sign
Parallel
You and I so aligned
Parallel
You and I intertwined equal sign
Parallel

I can get in my head, overthink
Promise you'll go easy on me 'til we're back in sync
It's fragile
We'll pick up all the pieces
Stitch 'em back together
When we come unraveled

Step by step
Right in time
Like my hands can read your mind

Lay on the floor beside me
Let's lock the door, remind me
Why
I would ever be anywhere else
Without you I'm half of myself
Parallel

Outside the sky is falling
Why
I would ever be anywhere else
Like something that I've never felt
You and I
Parallel

You and I so aligned
Parallel

You and I intertwined equal sign
Parallel
You and I so aligned
Parallel
You and I intertwined equal sign
Parallel

Lay on the floor beside me
Why
I would ever be anywhere else

You and I so aligned

You and I intertwined equal sign
Parallel
You and I so aligned
