

Scott Matthews, Bruno Finale

"Well; that's your lot folks The commie chap Scott has flicked and plucked his last note for this occasion and so too have all the other musicians on this record except they've done other things besides flicking, plucking, shouting and devouring exquisite biscuits

However, they can reappear just as swiftly via the power of the repeat function on your sound-box, device, type thing complete with crumb-dropping ambiance and all Anyway, until we meet again...

Bruno"

This is a song for Maurice He's out there somewhere

He'll hunt you down Maurice
He's a little known assassin called Maurice He's a little ninja assassin called Maurice
