

Scott Walker, Any Day Now

Any Day Now, I will hear you say goodbye my love
And you'll be on your way
Then my wild beautiful bird
You will have flown old
Any day now, I'll be all alone, Wooo
Any day now, when your restless eyes, meet someone new
All to my sad surprise
Then the blue shadows will fall, all over town, Wooo
Any day now, love will let me down
Cause you won't be around

And my wild beautiful bird
You will have flown old
Any day now, I'll be all alone
I know I shouldn't want to keep you
If you don't want to stay, no
Until you're gone forever
I'll be holding on for delights
Holding you this way
Making you stay

Any day now, when the clock strikes go you call up
And then my tears will flow and
The blue shadows will fall all over town,

Woooo
Any day now, love will let me down, cause you won't be around
