

Scott Walker, Everybody But Me

Well everybody's waiting, everybody but me.
Waiting for the party, everybody but me.
I don't think she loves me, she never looks at me.
At school the fellas walk her home, everybody but me.

Well everybody's dancing, everybody but me.
Dancing close together, everybody but me.
I don't think she loves me, she never looks at me.
I guess they'll have their fun with her, everybody but me.

I guess I shouldn't feel the way I do.
Way down deep inside she knows my love is true.
I hope she's havin' fun and some day she'll understand,
while she's kissing someone else I've been a lonesome man.

Well everybody's laughin', laughin', &cos they see.
I've been a fool to love a girl who never wanted me.
I'll find someone who's just my kind and always stay by me.
She won't want to hug and kiss everybody but me
I'll find someone who's just my kind and always stay by me.
She won't want to hug and kiss everybody but me
She won't want to hug and kiss everybody but me
