

Scott Walker, My Death

My death is like
a swinging door
a patient girl who knows the score whistle for her
and the passing time

My death waits like
a bible truth
at the funeral of my youth weep loud for that
and the passing time

a witch at night
and surely as our love is bright let's laugh for us
and the passing time

But whatever is behind the door there is nothing much to do angel or devil I don't care for in front of that door
there is you

a beggar blind
who sees the world with an unlit mind throw him a dime
for the passing time

My death waits
to allow my friends
a few good times before it ends let's drink to that

My death waits in
your arms, your thighs
your cool fingers will close my eyes let's not talk about the passing time

there is you

My death waits
among the falling leaves in magicians, mysterious sleeves rabbits, dogs
and the passing times

among the flowers
where the blackish shadow cowers let's pick lilacs

a double bed
sails of oblivion at my head pull up the sheets

against the passing time

there is you
