

Scott Weiland, Killing Me Sweetly

A wonderful find unlike,
No one before her
The world bowed before her,
Do you know what I mean?

I think I fell from the sky when she,
Told me when she needs me
We were so happy like,
A couple on the silver screen

Please don't change,
I'll never be the same...

Now go to sleep gently,
You're killing me sweetly
'Cause I can't find a way,
To make you believe...

Now go to sleep gently,
It's killing you sweetly
'Cause you can't find a way,
To make me believe...

Took a trip out of town we went,
South of the border
Somebody told us where we,
Could run away.

One morning you wake up and,
No one's beside you
No one to guide you,
Do you know what I mean?

Vicious games,
Will lead to bitter pain...

Now go to sleep gently,
You're killing me sweetly
'Cause I can't find a way,
To make you believe...

Now go to sleep gently,
It's killing you sweetly
'Cause you can't find a way,
To make me believe...

You are the apple of my life
You are the sun that gave me life

Now go to sleep gently,
You're killing me sweetly
'Cause I can't find a way,
To make you believe...

Now go to sleep gently,
It's killing you sweetly
'Cause you can't find a way,
To make me believe...
