

Scotty Don't, Later On Today

All these crazy cops and robbers roam the streets
But their business don't mean much to me
Now it's tougher trusting every soul that I meet

But I believe that isn't how it's supposed to be
This world can try to break us any way it can
But last time I checked I found it ain't no god or superman
So I'll just keep the things I need and I'll be on my way
And I'll meet you on the other side
Later on today
Ooh, later on today

Just waste my time sittin' anywhere I want
Watching people moving on their way
In and out of cars and bars and dirty restaurants
Nothing's ever ever here to stay

I'll spend no more time pretending I can change the past
All in all we know that the hard times never last
Remember that I'll meet you on the other side
Later on today
Ooh, later on today
Ah, later on today
All right
Ooh, later on today
Ooh, later on today
Ooh, later on
