

Scout Niblett, Baby Emma

Do what you will supposed outsiders of my soul
But don't be sure just cause you get lonely
That you're not me, and I am not you

All of my allies and enemies
Played out, played out eternally
For ourselves
For our amusement
And you don't say

Let's pulse and let's crackle eternally
Amplify our sorrow for each other to see
To remember

Baby Emma, do what you will
Are they just saying that you don't even know
I don't think so
And you don't say
No you don't say
