

Screeching Weasel, Time Bomb (Ben Weasel)

Joined at the hip again with him tonight You're almost invincible aside from all the nods and smiles but I know that You're gonna blow up 'cause you're a time bomb All set to go off you're a time bomb and nothing can stop you you're a time bomb You're such a beautiful accessory When you get home and you're alone I know he's gonna see what he's dealing with You're gonna blow up 'cause you're a time bomb All set to go off you're a time bomb and nothing can stop you you're a time bomb Behind the door all the numbers hit zero You might just turn cold or you just might explode in his face Everyone knows what's really going on But no one is gonna applaud you for your timing on him just 'cause You're gonna blow up 'cause you're a time bomb All set to go off you're a time bomb and nothing can stop you you're a time bomb
