

Seabear, Drunk Song

I never knew that a song
Could last this long
We can hide the time and take a ride with the wind

Let it blow us home
Where we feel less alone

Sleep will come (to mess you up)
Sleep will come (to mess you)
Sleep will

Sleep will come (to mess you up)
Sleep will
Sleep will come (to mess you)
Sleep will

Sleep will come
Sleep will
Sleep will

Take your walking shoes
We'll fill the floor to the grooves
I hung my hopes on you
What a stupid thing to do

In the meadow where crow drowned
We're reciving some hell before dawn
I pass the train to you and tell you how much I care

And she was dressed just like a river
And she was dressed just like a river

Sleep will come (to mess you up)
Sleep will
Sleep will come (to mess you)
Sleep will

Sleep will come
Sleep will
