

Seabound, October Song

Feel the seasons change
Unwavering like waves
October haunts me
We'll be allies all my life
Cold autumn days
Turn my mind back to a time
When I was alive

Not unexpectant
Let alone scared
Lighting candles
I'm slowly drifting back

Sometimes

Sometimes
We're living so close to the answer
Sometimes
We're wasting our chance to the censor
Inside us
Sometimes
In October
