

Sean Mac, 4 Leaf Clover

Hey Mr. brave
You're a slave
To fortune and fame
My life's like a knife
Cutting deep, but I live with the pain
Calling my bluff
I've had enough
Of all the things that I
Can't change
The Grim-reaper is gone
Told him move it along
He's just bad company
Chorus:
So what do you say?
To taking on the world today
And singing to the worlds sweetest melody
It's a luxury
I won't get run over
I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
Okay
I'm taking on the world today
and breathing in the life right in front of me
My philosophy
I won't get run over
I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
When you're cracking
Cause you're lacking
The control
Of the stress and the strains
Try to keep yourself on track
When obstacles get thrown your way
If it's pouring on you
Here's what you do
Go find a raincoat right now
My friend
The Grim-reaper is gone
Told him move it along
He's just bad company
(Chorus / solo)
Okay
I'm taking over the world today
and breathing in the life right in front of me
My philosophy
I won't get run over
I'm a soldier
With my four leaf clover
