

Sean Watkins, I Say Nothing

i wonder should i pull my courage out and say it would you be scared
and think different of me now would that break it

every time you call
though we talk so long
i say nothing at all

is it just me
has my mind been running wild
through a dreamland
where you might care
more for me than you show
am i stupid

every time i call
i say nothing at all

I'm more naive
than i would like to be
were you joking
did i miss cues
miss my most important lines of the whole scene

every time you call
i'm against the wall
i fight myself

every time you call
i'm against the wall
every time i call
i say nothing at all
