

Sean Watkins, Not That Bad/Blinders On

it's always perfect always safe and every place is the same what more could you ask for look it's clean as a hospital

I guess it's ok it's not that bad she and i could have it worse we might as well why not i've heard aiming high can hurt

a thousand sundays fill a box packaged neatly in my head i'll take what they handed me i guess that's as good as it gets i listened carefully i heard every word that he said but the closest i put it to my heart is this cross around my neck

with my blinders on it's all pretty good i could take them off but i dont see why i should
