

Sean Watkins, Run Away Girl

please show me there's something wrong that i don't see in you some terrible secret flaw that no one could excuse i've tried to hide you from my mind and make myself forget please don't try to stay we'll only make what's clean a mess

run away girl
run away now

the way that you smile at me isn't helping much at all please try not to laugh it only makes me want you more we both know this could never be but i cant let you go

run away now.....

what if you thought you saw a ghost a hundred times a day what if the thing you wanted most was impossible to say

run away now.....
