

Seance, Sanctum

restless hour lay awake I sense that there is more curse of death hangs over me I can't rest here no more circle of five

defying the night
thunderous sound
at the unholy seance blistered eyes has no disguise bears witness to my fate golden morning helps me thru but may have come too late burning up the midnight oil it has to be complete early hour ritual preform the darkened deeds roaming thru the old graveyards I find parts I can use brush away the blackened soil the birth of something new

circle of five
now shaking the ground night comes to dawn
born evil spawn
the unholy seance - shall gather again
